NOTE ABOUT EXTRA WORK AND CHANGE ORDERS

Extra Work and Change Orders become part of the contract once the order is prepared in writing and signed by the parties prior to the commencement of any work covered by the new change order. The order must describe the scope of the extra work or change, the cost to be added or subtracted from the contract, and the effect the order will have on the schedule of progress payments. The Owner may not require the Contractor to perform extra work without written authorization prior to the commencement of work covered by the new change order. Extra work or a change order is not enforceable against the Owner unless it identifies, in writing, prior to commencement of the covered work: (i) the scope of work encompassed by the order; (ii) the amount to be added or subtracted from the contract; (iii) the effect the order will make in the progress payments or the completion date.

MECHANICS LIEN WARNING

Anyone who helps improve your property, but who is not paid, may record what is called a mechanics lien on your property. A mechanics lien is a claim, like a mortgage or home equity loan, made against your property and recorded with the county recorder.

Even if you pay your contractor in full, unpaid subcontractors, suppliers, and laborers who helped to improve your property may record mechanics liens and sue you in court to foreclose the lien. If a court finds the lien is valid, you could be forced to pay twice or have a court officer sell your home to pay the lien.

To preserve their right to record a lien, each subcontractor and material supplier must provide you with a document called a 'Preliminary Notice.' BE CAREFUL. The Preliminary Notice can be sent up to 20 days after the subcontractor starts work or the supplier provides material.

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM LIENS. Get a list from your contractor of all subcontractors and material suppliers on your project, find out when they started work or delivered goods, then wait 20 days, paying attention to the Preliminary Notices you receive. PAY WITH JOINT CHECKS payable to both the contractor and the subcontractor or material supplier.

REMEMBER, IF YOU DO NOTHING, YOU RISK HAVING A LIEN PLACED ON YOUR HOME. For more information visit www.cslb.ca.gov or call CSLB at 800-321-CSLB (2752).
